

WEST VIRGINIA LAW REVIEW

RURAL APPALACHIA: PERSPECTIVES & SOLUTIONS FOR ISSUES FACING RURAL AMERICANS

March 28th, 2025

ITINERARY

9:00AM: Arrival and Breakfast

9:40AM: Introduction by Professor Eisenberg

10:00AM: Academic Panel, An Academic Perspective for Rural Policy Promoting Resilience

11:00AM: Christopher Williamson, Sam Petsonk & Gary Hairston, Prioritizing the Most Precious Resource: Miners & Mining Communities

12:00PM: Lunch and Networking

1:30PM: Land Use and Sustainable Development Clinic, WVU College of Law, Square Pegs in Round Holes: Fitting Rural Priorities into State & Federal Regulatory Schemes

2:30PM: Dr. Jennifer Sherman, Washington State University College of Arts & Sciences, Rural Regulation, Access Loss & Anti-government Sentiment

3:45PM: WVU College of Law Panel, Make Appalachia Great Again: Investing in Labor, the Environment & Infrastructure

4:45PM: Closing Remarks

REVIVING RURAL AMERICA

Toward Policies for Resilience

ANN M. EISENBERG

Fitzsimmons Event Hall

9:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.

Register below:

www.law.wvu.edu/law-review-symposium

CLE credit is available for attendees

Professional Attire Preferred